Press Release:

3rd Installment Airs on New NHS Construction

In 2009 NPA-TV documented every aspect of the construction of the new Norwood High School. Then NPA-TV did it again in January 2010 through July 2010. Now NPA-TV has followed the construction project from August 2010 through May 2011 and turned all the footage into an informative and enlightening two-hour long documentary featuring time lapse videos and interviews with the Owner's Project Manager Team and workers on the job. Tune in this weekend to NPA-TV and see how the building transformed into a state of the art High School.
